

Sunday • May 22, 2005 • 7:00PM

GEORGE WASHINGTON
SLEPT HERE!

UNCANNY
RESEMBLANCE, NO?

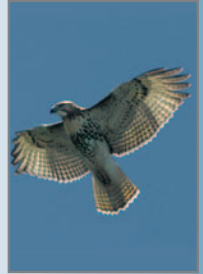

GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE!

A Gala Fundraising Event for the Hudson Valley Piano Club

Pollisades Virtuosi
www.pollisadesvirtuosi.com

A CLOSE LOOK AT INSECTS

MIGRATIONS

Sunday • May 22, 2005 • 7PM

NAURAUSHAUN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
51 Sickletown Rd., Pearl River, NY 10965

George Washington, The Hudson Valley Piano Club, the Palisades Virtuosi & friends, and Rockland composer John Lampkin join forces for:

A Gala Fundraising Event to Support Hudson Valley Piano Club ~ Dead Pianist Society Series

The concert will present the music of composer John Lampkin and will feature:

- ◆ George Washington Slept Here! a wild romp of variations for piano, flute, and clarinet.
- ◆ Insects: A Musical Entomology in Six Legs a light-hearted look at our Lilliputian fellow-travelers for wind quintet. Winner of the Grand Prize in the 2001 Composer Guild Competition.
- ◆ Migrations for wind quintet paints the migratory patterns of animal species on a sonic canvas. Winner of the 2004 Second Prize in the Composers Guild Competition.
- ◆ Short works for solo flute and solo piano.

Ron Levy, Piano, Margaret Swinchoski, flute, Donald Mokrynski, clarinet

TICKETS: $30 pre-concert ~ $35 at the door

Mail Check to:

Hudson Valley Piano Club
c/o Sarah Chauncey
34 April Lane
Nanuet, NY 10954

Please be sure to Include Your Name Address & Phone Number

OR

Purchase Online:

www.hudsonvalleypianoclub.org
click on May 22 Benefit Concert Tickets